

DIY ERP / CRM Risks

Thinking of a DIY ERP/CRM?

It sounds tempting, but there are risks!

Let's explore and avoid them.

1

BEFORE

AFTER

Scope Creep Happens

Projects grow!

What starts simple becomes complex fast. Define your needs clearly upfront or face endless changes.

2

Integration Nightmares

Connecting everything is tricky.

Your CRM needs to talk to your accounts! Ensure compatibility before you start building.

3

Hidden Costs Emerge

DIY seems cheaper, but consider your time, potential errors, and lost productivity. Factor in support and maintenance.

4

Data Security Risks

Protecting customer data is crucial.

DIY setups can be vulnerable. Don't risk fines and reputational damage.

5

Lack of Expertise

DIY ERP/CRM can be risky.

Plan carefully, understand costs, and consider expert help for success.
